Revised by the Senate (SSC) 2015-03-20

9.1 Chapter 2 of the UW Colleges Constitution requires that the Senate review the number of faculty at each campus every five years beginning in 2000 to determine if the number faculty Senators at each campus need to change.

9.2 The number of faculty senators will remain at 17 unless the Senate as a whole finds an overwhelming need to change the number. 9.3 To begin the process of reapportionment, Steering will request a listing of the number of faculty for each campus and for the UW Colleges as a whole for the current year and the preceding nine years from the administration.

9.4 Steering will calculate the ratio of the faculty at each campus to the total faculty for the Colleges for each year of data. Steering will use that ratio to determine how many of the existing number of faculty senators are due each campus.
9.5 Assigning Senators

9.5.1 Each campus must have at least one senator.

9.5.2 The Senate may consider increasing the faculty senators from a campus when that campuses ratio is over $\frac{1}{2}$ person greater than the number they now possess.
