Introduction

Beginning your higher education is an exciting prospect. You will have opportunities to participate in the life and governance of the UW Colleges campus you attend. You will have certain rights as a student. Along with those rights there are responsibilities. The rules, regulations and policies you will find in this booklet are intended to foster an environment of mutual respect for you and your fellow students. Included in this booklet is information about federal and state laws, UW System and UW Colleges regulations, policies and procedures. As you read the materials included in the booklet, you should feel free to contact the Solution Center on your campus if you have any questions.

A Message from the Chancellor

Dear Students,

Welcome to the University of Wisconsin Colleges!

You have made one of the most important choices of your life—to pursue your education at the University of Wisconsin.

We believe that the idea there's only one path to a college degree is an antiquated one. You are here for our smaller, more intimate class sizes; for more personal mentoring and career counseling; for greater faculty engagement. You are here to better yourself and your family; you are here to learn. This is the start of your University of Wisconsin degree, which will go with you wherever your career may take you.

You will gain critical thinking skills, analyze data and materials, research and synthesize information, expand your appreciation of the fine arts and stretch your ability to think globally and deeply about issues of the day.

You have joined a teaching and learning community of faculty, staff and students with programs, customs and regulations that make the university an interesting and safe place to learn. You have the student rights and responsibilities detailed in this carefully prepared guide, so your serious participation is needed to make sure our community continues to thrive and support your efforts to learn.

No matter what you do after getting your degree, you won't just have an education that helps you know, you'll have an education that helps you know how. It's a focus that will help you today, tomorrow, and for a lifetime.

Our academic community takes learning seriously, and our faculty and staff are committed to your success. I wish you all the best as you work together to reach your goals.

Cathy Sandeen, Ph.D., MBA
Chancellor

UW Colleges Shared Vision Statement

Students, faculty, academic staff, classified staff and administrators of the UW Colleges, in partnership with area residents, form a community of learners. Together they share the responsibility of promoting the mission of the University of Wisconsin to expand and disseminate knowledge and enrich the culture. Within the supportive and challenging environments of the colleges, students of all ages and backgrounds are prepared for advanced educational and professional achievement, lifelong learning, leadership, and responsible citizenship.

In order to realize the mission, all members of the UW Colleges community have a responsibility to promote and a right to expect:

Respect for Persons: Basic to respect is the freedom of inquiry and expression - the right to be heard and the obligation to listen. Respect is mutual; it is founded on the recognition that members of the community are multi-faceted with many gifts and challenges and come from diverse cultural and socio-economic backgrounds. The campus environment should be free from intimidation and harassment. Disagreement within the community is expected to be resolved through a process of mutual respect.

Personal Integrity: All community members must meet high standards of personal and academic integrity. Recognizing the value of others' time and effort, they strive to be accurate, to be timely, and to evaluate critically. Views should be presented honestly; taking credit where credit is not due contradicts the goals of learning.

Individual Development: Initiative, critical thinking, the pursuit of truth and the exchange of ideas are essential to any academic experience. Community members should be committed to continuous improvement in themselves and others. All should be prepared to devote whatever time and effort is necessary both to educate and be educated. As the learning community fosters self-development, it should provide ample and accurate advising. Opportunities for professional development and training are essential for individual growth.

Considerate Assessment: The learning environment requires considerate assessment. The criteria for assessment should be mutually acknowledged, public and unambiguous. Assessment should be ongoing, focusing not only on individual community members, but also on the educational process itself. The community helps its members to identify and assess their various responsibilities.

Responsive Institution: Each member of the community has a right and a responsibility to contribute to the success of the institution. The university should provide a responsive curriculum, smooth transfer procedures, and fair grievance processes and policies. All segments should be involved in budgeting and other long-range planning. Leaders seek and respect input gained through the shared governance process, so that decisions are made in the best interests of all members. Institutional and campus policies contribute to the success of all members of the community.

Right to Participate in Governance

Students at the University of Wisconsin are encouraged to participate in the governance of each institution in accordance with Section 36.09(5), Wis. Stats., which states:

The students of each institution or campus subject to the responsibilities and powers of the board, the president, the chancellor and the faculty shall be active participants in the immediate governance of and policy development for such institutions. As such, students shall have primary responsibility for the formulation and review of policies concerning student life, services and interests. Students in consultation with the chancellor and subject to the final confirmation of the board shall have the responsibility for the disposition of those student fees which constitute substantial support for campus student activities. The students of each institution or campus shall have the right to organize themselves in a manner they determine and to select their representatives to participate in institutional governance.

At the University of Wisconsin Colleges, student participation in the governance process is highly valued. If you are interested in becoming active in the governance of your campus or of the institution, you may wish to contact the student activities coordinator or the student government officers at your campus. In addition to the campus student government organizations, the University of Wisconsin Colleges also has a Student Governance Council which has representatives from each campus student government organization.

Annual Security Report

The UW Colleges Campus Annual Security Report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by UW Colleges campuses and on public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

The reports also include institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault and other matters.

Each student will be notified each year, via e-mail, of how to access the report on the UW Colleges Web site. Copies of the report may also be obtained from the Student Affairs Office at each campus.

<http://uwc.edu/students/safety/campus-security-reports>

Student Right-to-Know Graduation Rates

For those full-time students who first entered the UW Colleges in fall of 2011, the graduation rate is 26%. A student is considered to graduate if he or she earned an associate degree within 150% (3 years) of the normal time for completion of their program.

For those full-time students who first entered the UW Colleges in fall of 2011, the transfer-out rate is 66%. A student is considered to have transferred out if within 150% of the normal time for completion of a degree (3 years) the student subsequently enrolls in any program of an eligible institution for which its program provides substantial preparation. This transfer-out rate is based on data from the National Student Clearinghouse (NSCH). However, the NSCH only includes 92% of total enrollments in the United States.

UW Colleges Policies

Rights of Access to Student Records; Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

- 1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access: Requests regarding a student's behavioral, misconduct, and housing records should be submitted to the Office of Conduct, Compliance, and Residence Life via Megan Sippel at megan.sippel@uwc.edu. All other requests regarding a student's educational records should be submitted to the Registrar's Office via registrar@uwc.edu. The appropriate office will make arrangements for access to the records and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.
- 2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading: Students may ask the University to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the University decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the University will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing. If the decision is not to amend, the student will have the right to place a statement in the record commenting about the contested information.
- 3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent: One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, National Student Clearinghouse or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Upon request, the University may disclose educational records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA:

The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy
Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
600 Independence Ave., SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901
ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpc

Students should be aware that, under the Act, the University construes the following to be directory information which is available to the public: name, address (including e-mail address), telephone number, date of birth, dates of attendance, part-time/full-time status, degrees and awards received, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, and previous educational institution attended. No other information will be released to a third party, except as provided by law, without students' prior consent. In addition, students have the right to inform the campus that the above information cannot be released without students' prior consent. If students choose to have directory information restricted, students should log into their UWC PRISM account and make the necessary changes in the Self Service Center.

The campus may publish a Dean's List to honor students with high grade point averages. Students may request that their name be deleted from the public announcement of the Dean's List by contacting their campus Solution Center.

Policy on Parental Notification

UW Colleges recognizes all students as the adults they are as they pursue an education on our campuses. Grades and other official university communications are sent directly to the student through university email and the university PRISM account. What you choose to share with parents is your personal or family decision.

While UW Colleges also honor students' right to privacy regarding behavioral matters, there are several notable exceptions in which the university may choose to contact a parent or guardian:

- When a student's repeated abuse of chemicals is jeopardizing their own health or that of others
- When repeated efforts to gain compliance with university alcohol, drug, and other behavioral policies have failed and the student's status with the university is in question
- When a student's physical or emotional health has become threatened or has become potentially dangerous to others, and/or when the university feels the student may be incapable of making safe healthy decisions for themselves

Americans with Disabilities Policies and Reasonable Accommodation Requests

Students with documented disabilities have the right to request information and necessary accommodation services from the university as stipulated within Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA).

Students who feel they might have a disability which may need accommodation should direct inquiries to the Campus Contact for Student Accessibility Services who is located in the Solution Center on each of the University of Wisconsin Colleges campuses. Students may also contact the Director of Student Accessibility Services (DSAS):

Kristin Hoffmann
Director of Student Accessibility Services
University of Wisconsin Colleges
1600 N. University Dr.
Waukesha, WI 53188
(262) 524-3957
kristin.hoffmann@uwec.edu

The DSAS should also be contacted to address student issues related to section 504 and the ADA. Students who believe they have been discriminated against on the basis of their disability should follow the institutional procedure which implements s 36.12\(1\), Wis. Stats., Student Discrimination Prohibited. The University follows EEOC and state guidelines. To be timely, a written Statement of Complaint must be filed with the Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion within 300 days of the date the complainant knew or should have known about the most recent alleged incident. General OEDI email: oedi@uwex.uwc.edu

Accommodation of Religious Beliefs

It is the policy of the board of regents that students' sincerely held religious beliefs shall be reasonably accommodated with respect to examinations and other academic requirements. This policy is intended to help meet the needs of students by reducing conflicts between educational requirements and the students' free exercise of religion. The purpose is to treat all students and all religions as fairly as possible.

Notice to students and instructors: Course schedules and/or other means will be used to inform students and instructors of this policy.

No mandatory requirements on major observances: Faculty are strongly encouraged not to schedule mandatory academic exercises (examinations, field trips, assigned class presentation, etc.), or require class attendance on religious occasions such as Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, Good Friday, Passover Eve and the first day of Passover, Easter, and the first day of Ramadan.

Resolution of conflicts between academic requirements and religious observances: A student with a conflict between an academic requirement and a religious observance must be given an alternative means of meeting the academic requirement subject to the following:

- Students must notify their instructors, within the first three weeks of class and within the first week of summer session, of the specific days or dates on which they will request relief from an academic requirement.
- Instructors are not obligated to schedule make-ups before the regularly scheduled requirements.

Resolution of complaints. Complaints of failure to provide reasonable accommodation of a student's sincerely-held religious beliefs as required by Chapter UWS 22, Accommodation of Religious Beliefs, Wis. Adm. Code, may be filed under UWC Complaint and Grievance procedures adopted pursuant to Chs. UWCS 6 and 9.

In addition, failure to provide reasonable accommodation of a student's sincerely-held religious beliefs may constitute discrimination (Section 36.12, Wis. Stats.). Students should contact the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion for more information or to file a formal complaint of discrimination.

Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act

The Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act requires co-educational institutions of postsecondary education that participate in a Title IV, federal student financial assistance program, and have an intercollegiate athletic program, to prepare an annual report to the Department of Education on athletic participation, staffing, and revenues and expenses, by men's and women's teams. The Department will use this information in preparing its required report to the Congress on gender equity in intercollegiate athletics.

Equity in athletics data is now available on the web at: <http://ope.ed.gov/athletics>. This site provides data from thousands of colleges and universities in a convenient searchable form.

Discrimination, Harassment, and Violence

UW Colleges faculty and staff are driven to support institutional fairness, provide equitable access to opportunities and resources, ensure university-wide compliance with system, state, and federal protections, and help prevent and address discrimination, harassment, and violence.

Cultivating open, collaborative environments where everyone can work, learn, and flourish. It's more than an ideal; it's a clear strategy for helping our students, partners, neighbors, and employees succeed in an increasingly interconnected world. Trained UW Colleges professionals work with offices and individuals throughout our institutions to serve, educate, and protect the people of UW Colleges and UW-Extension, and strengthen the diverse communities that make both the university and state of Wisconsin great.

UW Colleges prohibits any form of retaliation for engaging in a protected activity such as making a complaint of discrimination or harassment, taking part in an investigation related to unlawful activities or behavior, or performing mandatory reporting duties. Furthermore, UW Colleges will include provisions in all contracts that the contractor or subcontractor will comply with the non-discrimination provisions of University policies and federal and state laws as a condition of doing business with the University. For more information on discrimination, harassment, or retaliation policies and associated complaint procedures, please contact the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion at 608-262-0277 or view the website at <http://www.uwex.uwc.edu/about/office-diversity-inclusion>

Sexual Misconduct

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 is a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded educational program or activity, which includes both UW Colleges.

Title IX is a living, breathing law that has been used to address inequalities in educational programming since 1972. It was first enacted to address different admittance standards and quotas for women in academic programs, but since then, has also been used to address access to athletics, sexual harassment, sexual assault, transgender students' rights, and rights of parenting students and employees. Title IX applies to all aspects of the institutions' programs and services.

On a regular basis, the Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, issues Dear Colleague Letters as a form of guidance to institutions about their responsibilities. In 2011, they released this Dear Colleague Letter that gave significant guidance on responding to sexual harassment and sexual violence.

Institutions must be proactive to ensure a campus is free from discrimination, harassment, and violence, including sexual misconduct and interpersonal violence. The 2011 DCL requires schools to designate a Title IX Coordinator, develop a policy and procedures to investigate complaints, stop misconduct, and remedy its effects.

UW Colleges Statement on Consensual Relations

It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents that consensual relationships that might be appropriate in other circumstances are not appropriate when they occur between:

(1) an employee of the university and a student over whom the employee has or potentially will have supervisory, advisory, evaluative, or other authority or influence, or

(2) an employee of the university and another employee over whom the employee has or potentially will have supervisory, advisory, evaluative, or other authority or influence.

Even where negative consequences to the participants do not result, such relationships create an environment charged with potential or perceived conflicts of interest and possible use of academic or supervisory leverage to maintain or promote the relationship. Romantic or sexual relationships that the parties may view as consensual may still raise questions of favoritism, as well as of an exploitative abuse of trust and power.

The following two types of consensual relationships are addressed in this policy:

(1) employee with a student; and

(2) employee with another employee.

Citation: University of Wisconsin System of Board of Regents Policy 14-8

The University of Wisconsin Colleges is committed to fostering the development of an environment based on professionally ethical behavior and free of discriminatory attitudes. Therefore, consenting amorous or sexual relationships between instructor and student or supervisor and employee are unacceptable.

The UW Colleges Encourage Healthy, Mutually Satisfying Relationships

Men and women can take proactive steps to build strong relationships that are free of violence and disrespect. Key contributing factors include:

- Open and honest communication that involves asking questions, giving feedback, and establishing boundaries
- Actively listening to your partner and respecting his/her thoughts and feelings
- Speaking up when you feel uncomfortable
- Clarifying responses that are confusing
- Maintaining control over your mind and body by limiting alcohol consumption

Sexual assault is sexual contact without consent. It is the responsibility of every initiator of sexual contact to get consent from his/her partner BEFORE proceeding. When it comes to consent:

- Both partners must be in complete agreement with any and all contact
- The consent agreement can be changed or revoked at anytime
- Ask for clarification if you are not sure that your partner is completely willing
- Sexual assault is a violent act based on power and control, not sexual intimacy
- If you're not willing, say so clearly and directly with words and actions
- People who are drunk or incapacitated cannot give consent

The vast majority of sexual assaults are perpetrated by someone the victim knows. While sexual assault is never a victim's fault, there are some things you can do to reduce your risk:

- Set sexual limits, being firm and forceful
- Trust your instincts when you feel uncomfortable and take action immediately
- Limit the amount of alcohol you consume to ensure your perception and judgment stay intact
- Stay in groups at parties and never leave alone (especially if you've been drinking)
- Avoid isolated areas and be alert to your surroundings
- Do not accept open or poured drinks or leave your drink unattended
- Lock doors, including your home and car

When it comes to preventing sexual assault, we all play a part. As a community, we need to:

- Report suspicious/dangerous behavior
- Speak up when we hear derogatory language that disrespects a person, gender, or sex-role
- Step in when we see inappropriate actions
- Ensure that our own interactions with others are respectful

Computing and Networking Usage Guidelines

Access to computing and networking resources is a privilege normally extended to University faculty, staff, and students. Accompanying that privilege is an obligation, on the part of users, to understand and abide by the responsibilities and regulations that govern the computing environment in the University of Wisconsin Colleges. These guidelines reflect the general ethical principles of the University community and indicate what responsibilities are characteristic of the University computing environment. The University of Wisconsin Colleges guidelines on the use of computer data networks and University-owned computer facilities and UW System policies can be found online at: <http://cits.uwex.uwc.edu/policies>. It is the responsibility of the student to read and abide by the appropriate use policies for the University of Wisconsin Colleges and the UW System Policy.

Any content, view, opinions and/or responses to posting expressed or submitted by individuals other than UW Colleges are solely the views, options and responsibility of the other person submitting them do not necessarily reflect the opinions of UW Colleges. UW Colleges is not responsible for content that third parties publish, post, upload, distribute, disseminate or otherwise transmit via the social media accounts created by UW Colleges.

Alcohol and Other Drug Information

The abuse of alcohol and the use of other drugs are detrimental to the health of the user. Further, the use of drugs and alcohol is not conducive to an academic atmosphere. Drugs impede the learning process and can cause disruption for other students and can disturb their academic interests. The use of alcohol or drugs in the workplace may also impede the employee's ability to perform in a safe and effective manner, and may result in injuries to others. Early diagnosis and treatment of drug and alcohol abuse is in the best interest of the student, employee and the university.

Warning Signs of Substance Abuse

Warning Signs: If you know someone who has problems related to drinking alcohol or other drug use, you're not alone. You don't have to be an expert to know if your friend has a problem. If he or she has these kinds of troubles related to alcohol or other drugs, your friend may need to talk with someone. Do they:

- Try to hide his or her drinking or other drug use?
- Not remember what happened while he or she was using drugs or drinking?
- Have problems with job or school performance?
- Take physical risks, such as having unprotected sex, driving, biking or swimming, while intoxicated?
- Think about getting high a lot?
- Limit friends to those who drink or use drugs a lot?
- Seem unable to have a good time or to party unless alcohol or drugs are available?
- Say he or she sometimes NEEDS a drink or drug?
- Get angry when you mention your concerns and deny that there's anything wrong?
- Have a history of alcohol or other drug problems in the family?

How You Can Help: First, learn more about alcohol and other drug abuse. Libraries, alcohol and other drug information agencies and treatment programs are good places to get more information.

Next, find out where your friend can get help on campus or in your community. Having this information available if and when your friend needs it will pay off: most people who seek help for alcohol or drug problems get better.

Let your friend know how much you care. Explain how his or her drinking and/or other drug use affects you and your friendship. Use your own words and say what is right for you. Be honest and specific. Say exactly what makes you unhappy and how those problems relate to drinking and/or drugs.

Don't get discouraged if your friend gets angry, refuses to listen or denies the problem. These reactions are common in people who have alcohol or other drug problems. All you can do is say how you feel, show that you care and suggest ways to get help. Feel okay if you do that. Only your friend can make the final decision to get help.

UW Colleges Code of Conduct

Academic Integrity Statement

Academic Integrity is an expectation of each UW Colleges student. Our campus community members are responsible for fostering and upholding an environment in which student learning is fair, just, and honest. Through your studies as a UW Colleges student, it is essential to exhibit the highest level of personal honesty and respect for the intellectual property of others. Academic misconduct is unacceptable. It compromises and disrespects the integrity of our university and those who study here. To maintain academic integrity, a student must only claim work which is the authentic work solely of their own, providing correct citations and credit to others as needed. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and/or helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. Failure to understand what constitutes academic misconduct does not exempt responsibility from engaging in it. For more information please read the Academic Misconduct Guide for students. <http://www.uwc.edu/students/handbook-policies/academic-misconduct-guide-students>

(3) A student who receives a disciplinary sanction under this section has the right to a hearing before the academic misconduct hearing committee under s. UWS 14.08 to contest the determination that academic misconduct occurred, or the disciplinary sanction imposed, or both. If the student desires such a hearing, he or she must file a written request with the student affairs officer within 10 days of imposition of the disciplinary sanction by the instructor.

(1) CONFERENCE WITH STUDENT. When an instructor concludes that proceedings under this section are warranted, the instructor shall promptly offer to discuss the matter with the student. The purpose of this discussion is to permit the instructor to review with the student the bases for his or her belief that the student engaged in academic misconduct, and to afford the student an opportunity to respond.

(2) DETERMINATION BY THE INSTRUCTOR THAT NO ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT OCCURRED. If, as a result of a discussion under sub. (1), the instructor determines that academic misconduct did not in fact occur or that no disciplinary sanction is warranted under the circumstances, the matter will be considered resolved without the necessity for further action or a written report.

(3) PROCESS FOLLOWING DETERMINATION BY THE INSTRUCTOR THAT ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT OCCURRED.

(a) If, as a result of a discussion under sub. (1), the instructor determines that academic misconduct did occur and that one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed under s. UWS 14.04 \(1\) \(d\) through \(h\) should be recommended, the instructor shall prepare a written report so informing the student, which shall contain the following:

1. A description of the misconduct;
2. Specification of the sanction recommended;
3. Notice of the student's right to request a hearing before the academic misconduct hearing committee; and
4. A copy of the institutional procedures adopted to implement this section.

If the student does not request a hearing within this period, the determination of academic misconduct shall be regarded as final, and the disciplinary sanction recommended shall be imposed.

(4) PROCESS FOLLOWING DETERMINATION BY THE INSTRUCTOR THAT DISCIPLINARY PROBATION, SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION MAY BE WARRANTED.

UWS 14.04 \(1\) \(i\) or \(j\) should be recommended, the instructor shall provide a written report to the investigating officer, which shall contain the following:

1. A description of the misconduct; and

- (c) The alleged misconduct would, if proved to have occurred, warrant a sanction of disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion; or
- (d) The instructor in the course is unable to proceed.

(2) CONFERENCE WITH STUDENT. When the investigating officer concludes that proceedings under this section are warranted, he or she shall promptly offer to discuss the matter with the student. The purpose of this discussion is to permit the investigating officer to review with the student the bases for his or her belief that the student engaged in academic misconduct, and to afford the student an opportunity to respond.

(3) CONFERENCE WITH INSTRUCTOR. An investigating officer proceeding under this section shall discuss the matter with an involved instructor. This discussion may occur either before or after the conference with the student. It may include consultation with the instructor on the facts underlying the alleged academic misconduct and on the propriety of the recommended sanction.

(4) DETERMINATION BY THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER THAT NO ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT OCCURRED. If, as a result of discussions under subs. \(2\) and \(3\), the investigating officer determines that academic misconduct did not in fact occur or that no disciplinary sanction is warranted under the circumstances, the matter will be considered resolved without the necessity for further action or a written report.

1. Except in cases where the disciplinary sanction recommended is disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion, if the student desires the hearing before the academic misconduct hearing committee, the student must file a written request with the student affairs officer within 10 days of personal delivery or mailing of the written report. If the student does not request a hearing within this period, the determination of academic misconduct shall be regarded as final, and the disciplinary sanction recommended shall be imposed.

2. In cases where the disciplinary sanction recommended is disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion, the student affairs officer shall, upon receipt of the written report under par. \(b\), proceed under s. UWS 14.08 to schedule a hearing on the matter. The purpose of the hearing shall be to review the determination that academic misconduct occurred and the disciplinary sanction recommended. (f) The committee may impose a disciplinary sanction that differs from the recommendation of the instructor or investigating officer.

(g) The instructor or the investigating officer or both may be witnesses at the hearing conducted by the committee, but do not have responsibility for conducting the hearing.

(h) The decision of the hearing committee shall be served upon the student either by personal delivery, electronic means, or first class United States mail and shall become final within 10 days of service, unless an appeal is taken under s. UWS 14.09.

(1) Where the sanction prescribed by the hearing committee is suspension or expulsion, the student may appeal to the chancellor to review the decision of the hearing committee on the record. In such a case, the chancellor shall sustain the decision of the academic misconduct hearing committee unless the chancellor finds:

(a) The evidence of record does not support the findings and recommendations of the hearing committee;

(b) Established procedures were not followed by the academic misconduct hearing committee and material prejudice to the student resulted; or

(c) The decision was based on factors proscribed by state or federal law regarding equal educational opportunities.

(2) If the chancellor makes a finding under sub. \(1\), the chancellor may remand the matter for consideration by a different hearing committee, or, in the alternative, may invoke an appropriate remedy of his or her own.

UW Colleges' Commitment to a Safe Campus Community

The University of Wisconsin Colleges have a long-standing commitment to providing a safe, secure, and comfortable environment for the members of the campus community. It is important for all members of the UW Colleges campus communities to help keep our campuses safe. We encourage everyone to report any crime or situation that violate the safety and well-being of our campus communities. It is an expectation that all members of the UW Colleges campus communities understand and act according to UW System and UW Colleges administrative codes and policies, as well as federal, state, and municipal laws and regulations. UWS Administrative Codes, Chapter 17 and 18, are valuable resources which outline student's rights and responsibilities in a non-academic misconduct situation, as well as provide expectations for student conduct.

UWS 17.01 Policy statement. The missions of the University of Wisconsin System and its individual institutions can be realized only if the university's teaching, learning, research and service activities occur in living and learning environments that are safe and free from violence, harassment, fraud, theft, disruption and intimidation. In promoting such environments, the university has a responsibility to address student nonacademic misconduct; this responsibility is separate from and independent of any civil or criminal action resulting from a student's conduct. This chapter defines nonacademic misconduct, provides university procedures for effectively addressing misconduct, and offers educational responses to misconduct. The University of Wisconsin System is committed to respecting students' constitutional rights. Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict students' constitutional rights, including rights of freedom of speech or to peaceably assemble with others.

UWS 17.11 Disciplinary procedure.

(1) PROCESS. The investigating officer may proceed in accordance with this section to impose, subject to hearing and appeal rights, one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.10 \(1\).

(2) CONFERENCE WITH RESPONDENT. When the investigating officer concludes that proceedings under this section are warranted, the investigating officer shall promptly contact the respondent in person, by telephone, or by electronic mail to offer to discuss the matter, review the investigating officer's basis for believing that the respondent engaged in nonacademic misconduct, and to afford the respondent an opportunity to respond. If the respondent fails to respond to the investigating officer, the investigating officer may proceed to make a determination on the basis of the available information. A complainant shall have all the rights provided to the respondent in this subsection.

(3) DETERMINATION BY THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER THAT NO DISCIPLINARY SANCTION IS WARRANTED. If, as a result of a discussion under sub. \(2\) or review of available information, the investigating officer determines that nonacademic misconduct did not in fact occur, or that no disciplinary sanction is warranted under the circumstances, the matter will be considered resolved without the necessity for further action. The investigating officer shall simultaneously notify the respondent and the complainant of this outcome and offer to discuss it separately with either one. If the investigating officer determines that nonacademic misconduct did not occur or that no disciplinary sanction is warranted, the complainant may appeal this decision in accordance with s. UWS 17.13.

(4) PROCESS FOLLOWING DETERMINATION BY THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER THAT NONACADEMIC MISCONDUCT OCCURRED.

(a) If, as a result of a discussion under sub. 2. A description of all information available to the university regarding the alleged misconduct. Such information shall be available to the complainant and the respondent, except as may be precluded by applicable state or federal law.

(b) The written report shall be delivered simultaneously to the respondent and complainant, excluding any information that may be precluded by applicable state or federal law.

(c) A respondent who receives a written report under this section has the right to a hearing under s. UWS 17.12 to contest the determination that nonacademic misconduct occurred, the choice of disciplinary sanctions, or both.

1. Where the disciplinary sanction sought is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10 \(1\) \(a\) to \(g\), and if the respondent desires a hearing, the respondent shall file a written request with the student affairs officer within 10 days of the date the written report is delivered to the respondent. If the respondent does not request a hearing within this period, the determination of nonacademic misconduct shall be regarded as final, and the disciplinary sanction sought shall be imposed.

2. Where the disciplinary sanction sought is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10 \(1\) \(h\) to \(j\), the investigating officer shall forward a copy of the written report under par. (b) to the student affairs officer. The student affairs officer shall, upon receipt of the written report, proceed under s. UWS 17.12 to schedule a hearing on the matter. A hearing shall be conducted unless the respondent waives, in writing, the right to such a hearing.

In cases where the recommended disciplinary sanction is identified in s. UWS 17.10 \(1\) \(i\) or \(j\), or where the respondent has been charged with a crime in connection with the same conduct for which the disciplinary sanction is sought, the advisor may question adverse witnesses, present information and witnesses, and speak on behalf of the respondent. In accordance with the educational purposes of the hearing, the respondent is expected to respond on his or her own behalf to questions asked of him or her during the hearing. The complainant shall have all the rights provided to the respondent in this subsection.

1. Shall admit information that has reasonable value in proving the facts, but may exclude immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious testimony.
2. Shall observe recognized legal privileges.

(g) The hearing examiner or committee may impose one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.10 \(1\) \(h\) to \(j\) may not be imposed unless previously recommended by the investigating officer.

(h) The hearing shall be conducted by the hearing examiner or committee, and the university's case against the respondent shall be presented by the investigating officer or his or her designee.

(i) The decision of the hearing examiner or committee shall be prepared within 14 days of the hearing, and delivered simultaneously to the respondent and the complainant, excluding information that may be precluded by state or federal law. The decision shall become final within 14 days of the date on the written decision, unless an appeal is taken under s. UWS 17.13.

(j) If a party fails to appear at a schedule hearing and to proceed, the hearing examiner or committee may issue a decision based upon the information provided.
