The University of Wisconsin-Richland and the University of Wisconsin Colleges Communication and Theatre Arts Department invite applications for an instructor (rank of Associate Lecturer, Lecturer, or Senior Lecturer depending on educational background and experience) for Fall 2016.

Courses Available Fall 2016

• One section of CTA 103 (3 credits)

Course Description

CTA 103 Introduction to Public Speaking – 3 credits

Study of the principles and techniques of effective speaking and listening in a variety of selected communication experiences.

Qualifications

• Candidate should have a minimum of a Master’s degree in Communication or a closely related field.
• Teaching experience at the University level is strongly desired.

Responsibilities

Teach introductory level Communications course; hold appropriate office hours; attend orientation activities; perform required course administration including development of a syllabus, grading, assessment, and reporting tasks.

Starting Date

Contract starts on August 29, 2016, and classes begin on September 6, 2016.

To Apply

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. To assure consideration, please submit application by July 27th, 2016. To apply, submit the following:

1. A letter of interest describing your teaching qualifications and teaching philosophy in the context of our needs
2. Current curriculum vita
3. Unofficial copies of both graduate and undergraduate transcripts
4. Names and contact information (e-mail address, phone number) of at least three references familiar with the applicant’s academic career and teaching experience.

Please send these materials via email to tracy.davidson@uwc.edu. Please include the term Richland CTA Lecturer in the subject line.
About the UW Colleges and Campus: The UW Colleges is the freshman-sophomore transfer institution within the UW System. UW Colleges functions as a unit that comprises thirteen two-year campuses, each of which offers an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree. The Richland County campus offers a highly respected academic program that enrolls about 500 students. The campus is located in Richland Center, population 5,200, with the shopping and dining amenities of a larger city. About 90 minutes driving distance to Madison, Richland County is within the Wisconsin driftless area of wooded hills and valley farms and includes the Lower Wisconsin State Riverway, a destination for outdoor enthusiasts from across the region.

A criminal background check is a condition of employment. The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from all underrepresented groups. It is our policy to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment.