The University of Wisconsin-Rock County and the University of Wisconsin Colleges Psychology Department invite applications for an instructor (rank of Associate Lecturer, Lecturer, or Senior Lecturer depending on educational background and experience) for Fall 2016 and Spring 2017.

Qualifications
Candidate should have a minimum of a Master’s degree in Psychology or equivalent. Teaching experience at the university level is strongly desired.

Responsibilities
Teach freshman and sophomore level psychology courses; hold appropriate office hours; attend orientation activities; perform required course administration including development of a syllabus, grading, assessment, and reporting tasks. Current courses are listed below.

Courses Currently Available Fall 2016
- PSY 202 Introductory Psychology
- PSY 250 Life Span Developmental Psychology

Courses Currently Available Spring 2017
- PSY 202 Introductory Psychology
- PSY 210 Statistical Methods in Psychology
- PSY 360 Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence

Course Descriptions
PSY 202 Introductory Psychology – 3 credits
Survey of major content areas in Psychology. Topics include research methodology, learning, memory, cognition, biological psychology, sensation, perception, motivation, emotion, development, personality, psychopathology, and social psychology.

PSY 210 Statistical Methods in Psychology – 3 credits
An introduction to descriptive and inferential statistics. Topics include measures of central tendency, measures of variability, correlation and regression, sampling distributions, and hypothesis testing procedures including t-tests, and analysis of variance.

PSY 250 Life Span Development Psychology – 3 credits
A survey of human development theories and research. Topics include the biological, cognitive, emotional, and social development of the individual from the prenatal period through old age and the process of death and dying.

PSY 360 Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence - 3 credits
A survey of human development theories and research. Topics include the biological, cognitive, emotional and social development of the individual from the prenatal period through adolescence.

Starting Date
Contract starts on August 29, 2016, and classes begin on September 6, 2016.
To Apply

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. To assure consideration, please submit application by July 15th, 2016. To apply, submit the following:

1. A letter of interest describing your teaching qualifications and teaching philosophy in the context of our needs
2. Current curriculum vita
3. Unofficial copies of both graduate and undergraduate transcripts
4. Names and contact information (e-mail address, phone number) of at least three references familiar with the applicant’s academic career and teaching experience

Please send these materials via email to tracy.white@uwc.edu. Please include the term Rock Psychology Lecturer in the subject line.

About the UW Colleges and Campus: The UW Colleges is the freshman-sophomore transfer institution within the UW System. UW Colleges functions as a unit that comprises thirteen two-year campuses, each of which offers an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree. The Rock County campus offers a highly respected academic program that enrolls about 1300 students. The campus is located in Janesville, a city of approximately 11,000 and about one half hour driving distance to Madison.

A criminal background check is a condition of employment. The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from all underrepresented groups. It is our policy to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment.