University of Wisconsin Colleges
Communication and Theatre Arts Lecturer
University of Wisconsin–Baraboo/Sauk County

The University of Wisconsin-Baraboo/Sauk County and the University of Wisconsin Colleges Communication and Theatre Arts Department invite applications for an instructor (rank of Associate Lecturer, Lecturer, or Senior Lecturer depending on educational background and experience) for Fall 2016 and Spring 2017.

Courses Available Fall 2016

- One section of CTA 103 (3 credits)
- Three sections of CTA 131 (1 credit, each)

Course Descriptions

CTA 103 Introduction to Public Speaking – 3 credits
Study of the principles and techniques of effective speaking and listening in a variety of selected communication experiences.

CTA 131 Theatre Laboratory (3, 1-credit sections)
Participation in theatrical production activities including directing, stage management, technical production, lighting, stage design, costuming, make-up, acting, and theatre management. It is possible to register in more than one section with cons. instr. Section 1: Acting Section 2: Technical Production Section 3: Theatre Management.

Qualifications

- For CTA 103: Candidate should have a minimum of a Master’s degree in Communication or a closely related field.
- For CTA 131: Practical theatre experience in direction and technical production are also required.
- If applying for both applicant must have at least a Master’s degree in theatre arts or a related field, as well as demonstrated training and/or experience in speech.

Teaching experience at the University level is strongly desired.

Responsibilities
Teach introductory level Communications or Theatre Arts courses; hold appropriate office hours; attend orientation activities; perform required course administration including development of a syllabus, grading, assessment, and reporting tasks. Current courses are listed below.

Starting Date
Contract starts on August 29, 2016, and classes begin on September 6, 2016.

To Apply
Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. To assure consideration, please submit application by July 15th, 2016. To apply, submit the following:

1. A letter of interest describing your teaching qualifications and teaching philosophy in the context of our needs
2. Current curriculum vita
3. Unofficial copies of both graduate and undergraduate transcripts
4. Names and contact information (e-mail address, phone number) of at least three references familiar with the applicant’s academic career and teaching experience

Please send these materials via email to tracy.davidson@uwc.edu. Please include the term Baraboo CTA Lecturer in the subject line.

About the UW Colleges and Campus: The UW Colleges is the freshman-sophomore transfer institution within the UW System. UW Colleges functions as a unit that comprises thirteen two-year campuses, each of which offers an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree. The Baraboo/Sauk County campus offers a highly respected academic program that enrolls about 500 students. The campus is located in Baraboo, a city of approximately 11,000. About one hour driving distance to Madison, Sauk County is geographically spectacular and admired by outdoor enthusiasts from across the region.

A criminal background check is a condition of employment. The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from all underrepresented groups. It is our policy to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment.