University of Wisconsin Colleges
English Lecturer
University of Wisconsin–Richland

The University of Wisconsin-Richland and the University of Wisconsin Colleges English Department invite applications for an instructor (rank of Associate Lecturer, Lecturer, or Senior Lecturer depending on educational background and experience) for Fall 2016 and Spring 2017.

Qualifications
Candidate should have a minimum of a Master’s degree in English or equivalent. Teaching experience at the University level is strongly desired. Experience with or training in developmental writing preferred. Experience with or training in ESL is also preferred.

Responsibilities
Teach introductory level composition courses; hold appropriate office hours; attend orientation activities; perform required course administration including development of a syllabus, grading, assessment, and reporting tasks. Current courses are listed below.

Courses Currently Available Fall 2016

ENG 099 Writing Studio – 3 credits
ENG 099 is a small group and individualized instruction course that helps students develop college-level writing and critical reading skills. Emphasis will be on writing process strategies.

ENG 098 Introduction to College Writing - 3 credits
ENG 098 is a composition course focusing on the conventions of academic writing, the composing process, critical thinking, and critical reading. Emphasis will be on reading and writing activities designed to prepare students for successful transition to college-level writing.

ENG 101 College Writing and Critical Reading - 3 credits
ENG 101 is a composition course focusing on the conventions of academic writing, the composing process, and critical reading. Emphasis will be on essays that incorporate readings.

ESL 106 – Multilingual Writers Workshop – 3 credits
An academic reading and writing course for multilingual writers taken prior to or concurrent with degree-credit composition courses. The course helps students improve their skills in written English for successful academic work at the university level.

LEA 102 Learning Skills – 3 credits
A workshop or discussion course that helps students develop college-level learning skills. Campuses may offer a general academic skills class or focus a section of LEA 102 on a specific area of college learning. Emphases may include managing time, using technology for academic learning, taking notes, studying textbooks, taking tests, developing an academic vocabulary, conducting and organizing research, thinking critically, working effectively in groups, and giving presentations.

Courses Currently Available for Spring 2017

ENG 099 Writing Studio – 3 credits
ENG 099 is a small group and individualized instruction course that helps students develop college-level writing and critical reading skills. Emphasis will be on writing process strategies.
ENG 098 Introduction to College Writing - 3 credits
ENG 098 is a composition course focusing on the conventions of academic writing, the composing process, critical thinking, and critical reading. Emphasis will be on reading and writing activities designed to prepare students for successful transition to college-level writing.

ENG 101 College Writing and Critical Reading - 3 credits
ENG 101 is a composition course focusing on the conventions of academic writing, the composing process, and critical reading. Emphasis will be on essays that incorporate readings.

ESL 106 – Multilingual Writers Workshop – 3 credits
An academic reading and writing course for multilingual writers taken prior to or concurrent with degree-credit composition courses. The course helps students improve their skills in written English for successful academic work at the university level.

Starting Date
Contract starts on August 29, 2016, and classes begin on September 6, 2016.

To Apply
Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. To assure consideration, please submit application by July 15th, 2016. To apply, submit the following:

1. A letter of interest describing your teaching qualifications and teaching philosophy in the context of our needs
2. Current curriculum vita
3. Unofficial copies of both graduate and undergraduate transcripts
4. Names and contact information (e-mail address, phone number) of at least three references familiar with the applicant’s academic career and teaching experience

Please send these materials via email to tracy.davidson@uwc.edu. Please include the term Richland English Lecturer in the subject line.

About the UW Colleges and Campus: The UW Colleges is the freshman-sophomore transfer institution within the UW System. UW Colleges functions as a unit that comprises thirteen two-year campuses, each of which offers an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree. The Richland campus offers a highly respected academic program that enrolls about 300 students. The campus is located in Richland Center, a city of approximately 4,500 that serves as a commercial center for its region. About one hour driving distance to either Madison or La Crosse, the region is geographically spectacular and admired by outdoor enthusiasts from across the region. For further information, please check the UW Colleges, campus, and department web sites at http://www.uwc.edu, and http://richland.uwc.edu.

A criminal background check is a condition of employment. The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from all underrepresented groups. It is our policy to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment.